

Major Talk By Truman Saturday

Off Today For Little Rock, Ark. to Attend Reunion of 'Buddies' in First World War

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP) President Truman left today for Little Rock, Ark. where he will make a major foreign policy speech tomorrow.

He took off at 12:45 p. m. (EST) in his personal plane, the Independence. The flight was expected to require about three hours and 20 minutes.

LITTLE ROCK, June 10 (AP)—Scattered through the city are reminders of the first world war. The 29th division, which opened here today in the most optimistic "It won't rain" he said confidently. Harry has that reputation.

The president will attend the annual reunion of the 29th Division in which he served as an artillery captain in the first world war.

He carried an ebony gold head case presented to him by veterans of Battery D, 129th Field Artillery, at a pre-breakfast breakfast last night. He also wore in his lapel a 29th Division gold button.

The president told reporters he would use the ebony case in a pre-breakfast walk in Little Rock tomorrow morning. He plans to have breakfast with his former battery mates.

Members of Party—Big Gen. Wallace H. Graham, the president's physician, and Joseph F. Major, deputy War Assets Administrator, were added to the president's party for the trip.

The president worked last night to complete an address to be delivered at 3:30 (EST) Saturday, highlighting the observance with the buddies with whom he served in France.

With Secretary of State Acheson working at Paris on the German problem and the Senate soon to take up the North Atlantic pact, the prospects for peace are expected to have heavy emphasis in the talk.

Mr. Truman's take-off in the "Independence," the White House (EST) was timed at 12:30 p. m. (EST) for the three and a half hour flight to Arkansas. He will return to Washington immediately after Saturday's talk.

Making the trip with the president are secretaries Charles G. Ross and Matthew J. Connelly, John R. Steinhilber, director of the President's Budget, director Frank Pace, an aide, and the president's three aides, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan of the Army, Rear Admiral Robert D. DeLoach of the Navy, and Brig. Gen. Robert W. Ladd of the Air Force.

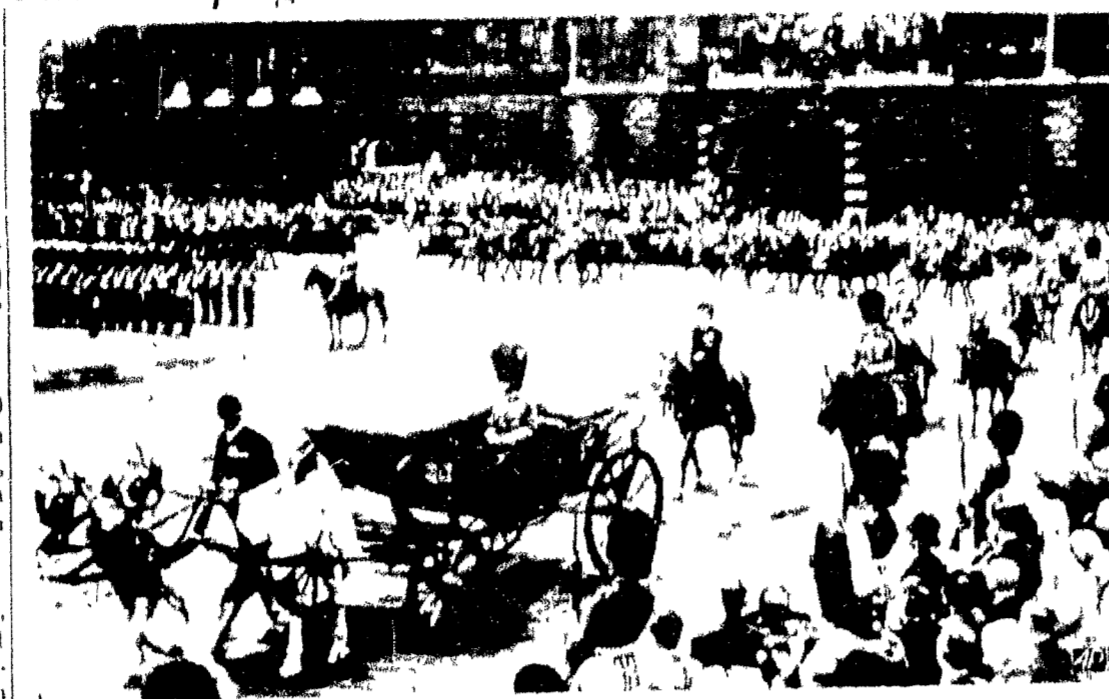

Plans in March—As he did in the reunion last year at Omaha and two years ago at Kansas City, Mr. Truman plans to meet with the 29th Division veterans in their annual parade Saturday morning.

The president likes nothing better than to get out of the White House and visit with the American Legion veterans, a Battery D man band and drill along for the several blocks from his hotel to the reunion stand.

However, both official and family matters prevent him from being away from Washington very long at this time.

Mr. Truman expects to be on the return trip in time to be back in Washington by 1 p. m. (EST) Saturday. The president will be back in Washington by 1 p. m. (EST) Saturday. The president will be back in Washington by 1 p. m. (EST) Saturday.

St. Louisian, 36, Killed, Car Hits His Motorcycle

Accident Occurs Eight Miles West of Sedalia on Hi-way 50

John William Robert, 36 years of age, 3701 French avenue, St. Louis, Mo., was killed instantly when he was struck by a 1945 Plymouth coupe, driven by Delmar Sevier, Warrensburg, this morning at 10:50 o'clock.

The fatality occurred about eight miles west of Sedalia on the black top (curve on highway 50).

The highway patrol reported that Robert was riding a 1940 motorcycle and, apparently, he lost control of the machine while turning the curve.

The motorcycle hit the right front end of the car and then bounced off into a ditch. Robert either jumped or fell from the machine and was lying on the edge of the highway when he was run over by the car.

Hospital Asks Court Decision

MEXICO, Mo. June 10 (AP) A suit to determine what kind of doctors are entitled by law to practice in the Mexican county hospital is being asked for the first time in court.

Years of controversy between the two schools of practitioners led trustees of the Mexican county hospital to file a petition for a declaratory judgment. Other counties, Callaway, Pike and Barton, which also have county hospitals, have been asked to join the suit.

The board of trustees set forth that it acted in 1940 to exclude doctors of osteopathy from hospital practice under an attorney general's opinion that trustees did not have the right to permit any person to attend the sick and practice medicine unless he was a graduate of medicine and a regular practicing M. D.

Named in the suit were 10 medical doctors, nine osteopaths (the Missouri State Medical Association and the Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians).

Sen. McKellar Shouts at ECA Paul Hoffman

Tells Him The Sooner He Resigns The Better For US

By Dan Whitehead WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP) Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.) today shouted at ECA boss Paul Hoffman "The sooner you resign, the better it will be for the United States."

The veteran chairman of the Senate appropriations committee openly accused Hoffman of trying to bully the committee into not cutting European recovery funds.

Hoffman coldly denied he tried to put any "pressure" on the committee to let his talk of resignation be a "threat."

Hoffman had told reporters yesterday he would resign if he could get the money he no longer thought he could direct the recovery program successfully.

And he said he did not think it could be done with less than the $3,500,000,000 that ECA is asking for the first year and one-half months of the next fiscal year.

McKellar brought up the subject only in today's hearing on the ECA appropriation, saying "Other than getting a way other people's money, I wonder what you are going to Europe. I think it would be a very good thing if you did resign."

Some senators said they will press for a cut in the recovery funds even if it means Hoffman's resignation.

Hoffman tried to get in an answer several times but McKellar shouted him down.

Senator Ferguson (R-Michigan) spoke in to say he did not consider Hoffman's remarks any threat and did not think the ECA chief had intended them as such.

"It is a good thing to have people in the government who are willing and able to resign if they don't think they can do a good job," Mr. Hoffman said.

"There are too many who stay when they know they can't do the job."

McKellar retorted "I did take it as a threat" and then he turned to direct a German peace treaty, French sources said.

"You have undertaken to do it before and you are not going to do it this time," he said. "I think it would be the best thing for the people of the United States and Europe if you did resign."

Ferguson interrupted again, "I think it would be a good calamity."

McKellar "Well, every man is entitled to his own opinion."

Hoffman finally got in a word "Nothing I said implied any threat."

Again McKellar cut him off. "Why, you have said nothing and nothing is happening and nothing is going to happen."

"You had offered him a job in Korea," I ordered him out of my room. He was trying to show me how light you are and how wrong I am."

Hoffman said quietly "That is an absolute falsehood."

He said a man he did not know "from Arkansas" off of a Communist party by an atomic scientist, (Graham Ross Lombard).

Important Events In World News

WASHINGTON, June 10 (AP) Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) told the Senate today the Fair-Hartley Act created industrial relations "chaos," failed to prevent national emergencies, and "did not even prevent pro-Communist from receiving collective bargaining recognition."

He said this last statement was demonstrated by "the fact that an open Communist can disavow his party affiliation one day and the affidavit's permitting him to come before the NLRB the next day."

This was an apparent reference to Max Perlow, secretary-treasurer of the CIO furniture workers, who announced last Sunday that he had resigned from the Communist party in order to sign a non-Communist affidavit under the Fair-Hartley law.

Identified as Man Who Purchased Gun.

MILWAUKEE, June 10 (AP) Milton Babich was pointed out today as the man who purchased the gun which the state claims was used to kill 16-year-old Patricia Brennan.

A witness at the murder trial of the 19-year-old former high school home student, walked to counsel's table, pointed to Babich and declared:

"That is the man to whom I sold the gun."

Babich displayed no emotion as the witness, William Flatrop, clerk in a sporting goods store, identified him. He maintained the same calm, almost dazed attitude he had shown since the trial began yesterday.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—When Washington dignitaries gathered at dinner this week to commemorate the Marshall plan, only one man present really knew how the Marshall plan was started.

President Truman. And not even Truman knew of the details of the Marshall plan until the White House was informed by the House of Representatives of the Marshall plan.

The Marshall plan was a complete accident as far as the White House was concerned. President Truman had been scheduled to make a speech at Cleveland, Ohio, in the winter of 1947 and called in Dean Acheson, then undersecretary of state, to ask if he could get him out of a jam.

He explained that to please some of his wife's friends he had promised to speak in Cleveland, that the folks in Mississippi had made elaborate preparations and that this was to be the biggest event in the town's history.

But, he said, he couldn't go. Senator Bilbo was back in the state jail after the "cotton" test. He said he would be in Cleveland, Ohio, and if he could get him out of a jam, he would make the state at that time. He had written his Mississippi friends he said, "I'm coming."

Acheson, of course, promptly accepted the President's personal plea in fact told Truman he had been eager to make a major speech, but he warned it would be an expensive one.

Henry Wallace's Mistake

So, having to mind Henry Wallace's mistake, he said, "I'm coming."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"GOD THE PRESERVER OF MAN" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 12, 1928.

Golden Text: Deut. 32:27.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the Lord God is a sun and shield; no good thing will be withheld from them that walk uprightly." (Ps. 84:11) The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Celosians (Ch. 4) Paul says: 'When Christ, who is our life, shall appear (be manifested), then shall we also appear (be manifested) with him in glory.' When spiritual being is understood in all its perfection, continuity, and might, then shall man be found in God's image. The absolute meaning of the apostolic words is this: Then shall man be found, in His likeness, perfect as the Father, indestructible in life, 'hid with Christ in God.'—with Truth in Divine Love, where human sense hath not seen man." (p. 325)

Sunday School Lesson

Christ Came to World To Save Sinners

By William E. Gibrey, D. D.
"This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance," wrote Paul to Timothy (1 Timothy 3:15). "That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief."
When Paul called himself the chief of sinners he was probably remembering his days as a persecutor, when he had stood by and held the garments of those who stoned Stephen to death. He remembered, too, how he had gone from that tragic scene on his way to Damascus breathing out threatening and slaughter against those of the new-found faith, of which he himself was so soon to become the chief disciple.
No such dark blot of violence and persecuting zeal may be upon you and me. We can claim no distinction in our sin, but if we say we have no sin, as John reminds us (1 John 1:8), we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. So Jesus came into the world to save us.

In what spirit, then, do we approach those last and scenes in the life of our Lord, His death and burial? Are they to us only tragic events in a far-off past, evoking a measure of sympathy, and of compassionate interest as we read of the failure and repentance of Peter, of the devotion of Joseph of Arimathea?
All that is well, but it is not enough. Are we mere observers, or are we participants? A Negro spiritual asks pointedly and plaintively, "Where you there when they crucified my Lord? Were there when they nailed Him to the tree?" And there is more than plaintive melody in those challenging questions.

We know how Paul would have answered those questions. He moved toward Calvary, was crucified and buried, and rose again, were so real to the Apostle that he wrote: "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me, and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." (Galatians 2:20.)

That is the perfection of faith and of Christian experience, in which, possibly, few of us attain. We are so content to follow the Master afar off and too often we lack the courage of the faith that we profess. But the experience of Paul is the true and possible experience of every Christian who would receive all the power and blessing that the Master came to bestow.
Let us pray for faith, and vision, and courage, that we may approach to quote Paul's language) all for which Christ has apprehended us. And "apprehend" is a long word that means "to take hold." Does not the New Testament admonish us to "lay hold on eternal life?" (1 Timothy 6:12.)

ing services at 11:00 o'clock. "God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the lesson sermon. Golden Text: Deuteronomy 32:27. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Wednesday evening testimonial meetings at 8:00 o'clock. The reading room is located at the reading building. Entrance on Sixth street. It is open to the public each afternoon from 2 to 4 except

Spiritual Detachment

There is nothing in Christian teaching that says a man should live isolated from the world. What Christianity teaches is that men should cultivate a spiritual detachment so that worldly cares or ambitions may not blind them to the ultimate meaning of existence.

Every creature has a divinely-ordained mission: to save his soul. Pursuing salvation is a man's primary vocation. That does not, however, preclude living an active, busy life in the world. Contrariwise, every honest and worthwhile effort may be made an integral part of the over-all job of getting to Heaven. It is the spirit and the motive of the effort that is important.

Spiritual detachment means keeping one's eyes fixed on the eternal future as well as the temporal present. Many men have become saints while performing, year after year, the most uninspiring, humdrum tasks. Housewives have literally swept and cooked and sewed themselves into heaven. In many a factory and office are future citizens of the Kingdom who store up overlasting rewards every time they add a column of figures or oil a machine.

These good souls are never cogs in a machine. They are men and women dedicated to giving good service, fulfilling their duties to the best of their ability, working cheerfully day after day so that their families may be assured the necessities of this life. They are also men and women who not only keep close to God all the while, but make Him the center and the pivot of their lives.

Spiritual detachment means having the vision to perceive the reality of God's presence everywhere. It means being prepared to make His law supreme at all times, whether in the home or the place of work. It denotes the ability to think often of God, to make frequent and conscious dedication of oneself to Him. It means accepting the inevitable trials and difficulties of life with faith and humility.

Spiritual detachment means, in short, looking at the world as merely a road through which one must pass to achieve ultimate contentment and peace. It means being always on guard lest the world itself become too important, too enticing, or too demanding.

Contend With 'Whirlwind'

Christopher in Shortage Blame To 80th Congress

WASHINGTON, June 10—(AP)—Blame for a shortage of wheat storage in the southwest is placed on the last Congress by Rep. Christopher (D-Mo.).

"The Eightieth Congress, when it tied the hands of the Commodity Credit Corporation so they could not provide wheat storage for this crop, sowed to the wind and now they will have an opportunity to contend with the whirlwind," he said in the Congressional Record.

Program For Relief

President Truman has just signed into law a bill allowing the CCC to build or acquire storage and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan already has started a program to make more storage available.

Christopher expressed the belief that much of the wheat now being harvested will have to be left on the ground because of lack of storage. If weather is unfavorable, that grain will deteriorate and farmers will be forced to take from 30 to 50 cents a bushel less than the loan price, he said.

Grain storage could and should have been built last year, the Missourian asserted, but Congress "so tied the hands of the CCC that it was impossible for them to do so under the law as it is."

Passage of the new law authorizing the CCC to build or acquire storage may have come too late to do much good for this harvest, he said.

He quoted Rep. Hope (R-Kan.) as saying railroad reports indicated 217,000,000 bushels of grain storage space are available east of the Rocky mountains.

But Hope did not say, Christopher added, what per cent is available for government loan wheat.

"It is my opinion," he said, "that most of that storage space will be filled with distressed wheat on which the grain trade will, no doubt, make a profit of 30 to 50 cents a bushel and thereby defraud the American farmer of the just reward of his toil."

Assaults Aiken Act

WASHINGTON, June 10—(AP)—Rep. Christopher (D-Mo.) told the House Thursday the Truman administration isn't trying to dominate or regiment the American farmer. He added that the Democratic farm meeting at Des Moines next week is to discuss a program to replace the Aiken farm law.

He asserted that the Republican party in 1932 "ought not have dominated or controlled the farmers, but it bankrupted them and put them out of business."

He contended that if crop support prices are cut from 90 to 60 per cent of parity, as would be permitted under the Aiken act, "we farmers will be in about the place we occupied in 1932."

"Again farmers would be desperate, unable to pay taxes and would reach up in desperation and again pull down the whole financial structure of the United States," he said.

Christopher told a reporter he will leave tomorrow night by plane for Mitchell, S. Dak., where he will address a Jefferson-Jackson day dinner Saturday night. Then he will return to Des Moines, Ia., Sunday to attend the Democratic 17th meeting.

He will be in Kansas City Wednesday, under present plans, to address the annual convention of the National Lime Grinders Association.

Charge Playing Politics

WASHINGTON, June 10—(AP)—Republicans in Congress accused Secretary of Agriculture Brannan Thursday of playing politics with grain prices and the price support program.

In a Senate speech, Senator Williams (R-Idaho) said Brannan has "manipulated markets" for political reasons.

In the House, Rep. August H. Andresen (R-Minn.) asserted that the administration is "deliberately playing politics with the welfare of the farmers of the nation in the administration of grain support loans."

Andresen cited the announcement by Brannan on Tuesday that loans up to 75 per cent of support prices would be made on wheat stored on the ground.

"That brought a report from Rep. Christopher (D-Mo.) that ground loans for wheat are necessary because of an 'emergency' created by the 80th Congress," when Republicans were in power.

Andresen said his point was that the administration had refused to make such loans last year. He declared:

"The administration through the Commodity Credit Corporation has always had full authority to make loans of this kind under present law. Last year during the campaign, the President and all

Took a Long Ride

Mrs. Cora Pelsel, a farm wife of near Iowa City, Iowa, and her two-year-old daughter, Louise Dawn Pelsel, are pictured in St. Louis, where Mrs. Pelsel first told police that they had been abducted by a man. Later she changed her story, saying there was no abduction and no man involved in the incident. She explained her trip to St. Louis by saying, "I just had a strange desire to take a long ride."

of his followers declared that the Republicans were responsible for the slump in grain prices at between 25 and 35 cents a bushel below support level. In the meantime, the CCC steadfastly refused to make grain loans unless so-called proper storage was provided.

Commenting on the Republican criticism, Brannan said there was "no thought to provide adequate price support for farmers will not

Fourth Execution Date for Killer

TACOMA, Wash., June 10—(AP)—A fourth execution date—July 15—was set Thursday for Jake Bird in an unprecedented court appearance here.

The usually voluble Negro transient was stopped short just as he was about to begin his customary courtroom speech.

"Mr. Jake Bird," Superior Judge Hugh Rosell said quickly but coldly, "the court has heard you several times before. The court believes there is no purpose in hearing you further. I will read the death warrant."

He did.

Bird's jaw dropped in obvious surprise and he stood silent and almost stunned.

Less than 60 seconds later, the judge signed the death warrant directing the warden of the state penitentiary at Walla Walla to hang "the said Jake Bird by the neck until dead" on July 15.

The hanging was ordered for Oct. 30, 1947, as slaying of Mrs. Bertha Kull and Mrs. Kull's daughter, Beverly, also was slain while attempting to defend her mother against the man who has admitted complicity in 44 killings around the United States.

His execution has been stayed three times by court appeals, which took him twice to the United States supreme court.

This was his 14th appearance in court in connection with his various appeals.

O. H. King Cole Again Heads The S.P.E.B.N.Q.S.A.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 10—(AP)—A Wisconsin brewer Thursday was re-elected president of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

Directors of the singing organization chose O. H. King Cole, Manitowish, Wis., for a second term as president. They also re-elected O. C. Cash, Tulsa, Okla., founder and permanent third assistant temporary vice-chairman.

Directors elected for three years, include Kenneth Way, Centralia, Mo.

Pollet Beats Giants 4-1 Allowing But Six Safeties

By Ralph Roden

N. W. YORK, June 9. (AP) —The Brooklyn Dodgers protected their ball game lead over the St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Braves in the second National League pennant race today, beating the Chicago Cubs, 9-5, while the Cards tipped New York, 4-1, and the Braves beat Cincinnati, 10-2.

Philadelphia's 19th is further ahead in the race, leading the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, in an exciting thriller to tie the slumping Giants for fourth place, three games off the pace.

The American League's flag-ship club once more as the winningest Detroit Tigers, clinched the front-running New York Yankees, 9-3, to pull to within three and a half games of the bumbers.

NEW YORK, June 9 (AP).—Howie Pulet pulled the St. Louis Cardinals to their sixth straight victory today, 1-1, as the Redbirds swept the three-game series with the New York Giants. Pulet allowed only six hits in winning the fifth straight. The Giants' run came in the sixth, but a scoreless string of 24 consecutive innings.
